

Spiritual Liberation

To live a spiritually free life through the power of the Holy Spirit and commit to daily individual prayer, meditation, weekly corporate fasting, worship, prayer, and bible study. We are activating our spiritual gifts to advance God's kingdom in our local context.

Mental/Emotional Liberation

To live a mental/emotional free and healthy life. We seek not to be encumbered by mental and emotional oppression but rather free to live our best life. To accomplish this, one must engage in spiritual disciplines, pastoral counseling, and psychotherapy. For referrals and appointments, please contact the Monument of Faith's Nia Counseling Ministry at niacounseling@mof-church.org

Financial Liberation

To live financially free lives, economically stable and fiscally responsible by seeking to honor God with the resources entrusted to us. We will endeavor to live debt-free and within a budget that reflects our income, save a portion of our income for emergencies, and commit to giving to sustain the mission and vision of our church.

Relational Liberation

To live relational free lives. We were created to be in relationship with God and each other. This year, we seek to be free of all toxic relationships and to nurture life-giving relationships. For assistance in obtaining relational freedom, please contact Nia Counseling at niacounseling@mof-church.org

Communal Liberation

To live in a community that is safe, free of violence, offers affordable housing, healthy and nutritious food, recreational and green spaces, and places of spiritual enrichment. To partner with organizations and institutions that are willing to invest in our community's wholeness and liberation.
